

Fraud Resource Guide

Phishing Emails

<https://www.scams@fraudwatchinternational.com>

If you have received a phishing email and realize it is fraudulent, Please contact Fraud Watch International. They will work to shut down the originator of the fraudulent email.

Internet Crimes

<https://www.ic3.gov>

Reporting fraud to this site is extremely important. Complaints from victims who have taken a loss will be forwarded on to local, state or federal law enforcement agencies. Even if a loss is not incurred complaints that are filed are useful because they are accessible by law enforcement and are used to analyze trends, gather intelligence and educate the public.

Mail Fraud

<https://postalinspectors.uspis.gov>

Accessing this site allows you to send a complaint to the U.S. Postal Inspection Service if they suspect they are a victim of mail fraud.

Although the Postal Inspection Service cannot resolve routine business disputes between companies and their customers, it can act against a company or individual if there is a pattern of activity suggesting a potential scheme to defraud.

Identity Theft

If you have a customer that is a victim of Identity Theft they can contact The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) Identity Theft Hotline toll free at 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338) or visit their ID Theft Website at www.consumer.gov/idtheft.
