

Tax Return Identity Theft Resources:

If you have filed a tax return and are informed that one has already been filed in your name, you most likely have become a victim of Tax Return Identity Theft. The following are steps you can take to report the incident:

- Call the Tax Id Fraud Hotline 800-908-4496, and/or visit the following website: <http://www.irs.gov/uac/Newsroom/Tips-for-Taxpayers,-Victims-about-Identity-Theft-and-Tax>Returns>
- The IRS will instruct you to file Form 14039, which can be obtained at the following website: <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f14039.pdf>
- You should also report the incident to the Federal Trade Commission by visiting ftc.gov for assistance with creating an identity theft report, and placing a fraud alert on their credit report. The following are useful links:
